5. This action of Assam Circle naturally gives rise to the following questions :

- i) When the number of JTO vacancies existed unfilled in 1999 were only 11, how Assam Circle could promote 23 officials to JTO against 1999 exam ? Where did the remaining 12 vacancies come from ?
- ii) How Assam Circle reverted 17 executives ? Where from did they get this number 17 ?
- iii) When the number of reversion was 17, how could they promote 23 officials ?
- iv) We are aware that out of the 23 officials promoted, 5 (five) did not join the promoted posts because they were already working as executives as JTO/SDE/JAO/AO etc. Why Assam Circle did not make any effort to fill up those remaining five posts from the redrawn list of 1999 candidates, if at all they intended to promote 23 numbers ?

Now keeping in view the above serious irregularities committed by your good office, we request your kind intervention and to take either of the following steps for the ends of justice :

- A. Kindly restrict the number of reversion to 11 and reinstate the remaining six officials to their respective executive posts. (We leave the case of reversion of unduly promoted officials to the wisdom of the management.)
- B. Since Assam Circle intended to promote 23 officials to JTO from 1999 redrawn list and only 18 have joined the promoted post, the remaining 5(five) vacancies may please filled up from the eligible candidates of the redrawn list of 1999 appeared candidates.

This Association has enough faith in the wisdom of present Assam Circle management and believe that justice will be done to the innocent executives reverted for no fault of their own, and shall do everything to save them from further injustice, humiliation and social degradation.

With best regards

Yours Sincerely,
